Friends welcome, but don't invite all the Alta lift line. Cost: 25¢ per person for ice, etc.

The climb will take at most two hours from the top of the lift (provided everyone checks in advance that his climbers fit his skis). tributed in advance.

watch for a sign at Alta.
- Feb. 14 SNOW BASIN
- Feb. 15 SWIMMING at the YWCA.
- Feb. 20 JACKSON HOLE, or SUN VALLEY, or ASPEN? We
- 22 should not let a three-day weekend go to waste. The board would like suggestions as to what would be best. Phone Anita Feltis (DA 2-4153) and tell her your preference.

NOTES

Publication of this "Rambler" was delayed in the hope that copies of the several proposed amendments to the WMC constitution could be included. The texts have not been completed, so the Board had to postpone the general meeting scheduled for Jan. 19th to Feb. 2nd, so that the texts may be distributed in advance in accordance with the rules.

Lucille DeBuel has found it necessary to resign from the WMC Board of Directors. We greatly regret that she will not be able to assist us. Dale Green has been appointed to the vacancy.

Obtaining transportation to Alta and Brighton in winter is always a problem. Our managers of transportation, Burr and Helen Lee, request that anyone driving to Alta or Brighton (or anywhere on a Club trip) PLEASE phone if an extra passenger can be taken. Those wanting rides should also telephone, but at present there is a lack of drivers and cars. The usual rate for a round trip or ride to Alta or Brighton is $1.00.

Also needed are drivers who will take time off from skiing (or loafing) to drive cars around from one canyon to another to permit the Club to schedule trips such as Alta-Brighton and Alta-American Fork Canyon.

Phone: Burr and Helen Lee-----CR 7-4651.

DUES

We hate to mention it, but our rules say a reinstatement fee should be charged those who don't pay their dues for 1959-1960 right soon. Most members have paid. If you have forgotten, please send your $6.00 ($2.00 for extension members) to Don Pearson, 2851 East 7375 South, Salt Lake City 17, Utah.

SKI TOURS

We try to schedule an assortment of tours, of all types, beginning, intermediate and advanced. Since snow conditions can change overnight, the leader must use his discretion in deciding if a trip as scheduled is safe, or if an alternate would be safer. However, any alternate selected should be comparable in difficulty to the one scheduled, so a person expecting, for instance, a beginner's trip, will not be led on one too difficult for him. So, if from below it looks as if a scheduled trip could not be taken, don't just stay home. Check with the Leader. He will have an alternate if necessary and possible. Last winter, several of the best ski tours were alternates selected at the last minute by the Leader--and this writer missed them, too.

Also, there will often be small groups going off the usual slopes on non-scheduled jaunts. If you are looking for more such, call Carl Bauer, EL 5-6036 or Alexis Kelners, DA 8-1030.

The Sugar House Hourly Nursery, 2134 South 10th East, HU 5-1414, welcomes children of skiers, we are informed. Day rate is 25¢ per hour per child, lower for families (3 or more children). Open all hours, registered nurse in attendance; telephone for details.

W. M. C. NEWS

By Jeanne Pearson

The best Christmas present of all arrived about 11:00 A. M. on Christmas Day. I am speaking, of course, of the long awaited snowfall. Don reports many familiar faces at Alta over the weekend. Among those seen was Patty Parmalee home from college for the holidays.

There was quite a write-up in the Tribune about the University of Utah climbing group, the Ute Alpine Club. WMC member Terry Arney is president.

In the magazine section of the Sunday paper was an article on ski organizations in the Intermountain area. Heading the article was a scarecely recognizable photograph of Mel Fletcher taken at a WMC ski circus.

The Lees had a note from Ellie LePage and she seems to be enjoying life in San Francisco. At the time, she hadn't yet tried to go skiing. California snow was like Utah snow--no snow.

Paul and Gloria Black, former members, have moved to Towncrest Acres. This is just south of 70th South and east of Highland Drive.

Anita Redd and Dick Feltis were wed December 26th in Las Vegas. Best wishes to the two of you.

And a Happy New Year to all of you.

AND MORE WMC NEWS

The Yergensens are now skiing in Europe. That is why you have not seen them since late December.

Another Club Member is now on the Alta Ski Patrol--Don Pearson.

George Unseld has completed the publication of his book, The Hieronymus Story.

Virginia Saville is the latest victim of a collision on skis. Two others skied into her on "Main Street" at Alta, on Sunday, January 3rd. She is in the hospital with a leg broken in several places.
