Social Director.

The Wasatch Mountain Club is currently functioning without the services of a Social Director. The social director serves to support general membership meetings and organizes social events throughout the year. Hence, this year we do not have many social gatherings planned. In the past there has been a Cinco de Mayo party, a harvest festival, sing-a-longs, a Halloween party, the annual Awards Dinner and the popular the Old Timers/New Comers party at the Lodge. At the moment the volunteers on the WMC board (all serving in other capacities as well) believe we will be able to support the Old Timers/New Comers party, the Leader's party and the general membership meetings, but will not be able to plan additional events without outside support.

If you would be willing to serve as social director we would really appreciate your services. If you are interested in helping organize, support or clean up after the Old Timers/New Comers party (August 23rd) then please let me know. If you would like to host the Halloween party – same thing goes. The Halloween party will not be held this year unless we get a volunteer (or volunteers) to host it. If you would like to host a club-wide party or event, perhaps a slide show or post hike picnic please email myself or Trustee Linda Kosky and we will find a way to assist you.

Since we're talking about social events, and many events used to take place at the lodge, I thought I'd review our member Lodge Use Policy. Members are encouraged to organize parties at the lodge that are open to all members of the club, are advertised in advance (preferably in the Rambler) and occur on unreserved weekdays or weekend days already reserved for Lodge work parties. A usage fee of $3 dollars is requested per member participating in the lodge event ($5 per nonmember) and this money goes directly into the Lodge fund for repairs and upkeep. Participation in a work party prior to the event cancels this fee. Any fee required to host the event (DJ, food, etc) may also be collected from members on top of the Lodge fee.

Member's wishing to host private parties at the Lodge need to follow general rental terms and conditions including security deposits and member-discounted rental fees. You can offset some of the rental cost through participation in work parties, though this is subject to some limitations. A full description of the lodge use policy can be found on the website.

Enjoy the summer.

WMC Purpose

(Article II of the WMC Constitution)

The purpose shall be to promote the physical and spiritual well being of its members and others by outdoor activities; to unite the energy, interests, and knowledge of students, explorers, and lovers of the mountains, deserts, and rivers of Utah; to collect and disseminate information regarding the Rocky Mountains in behalf of science, literature, and art; to explore and picture the scenic wonders of this and surrounding states; and to foster awareness of our natural areas including their plant, animal, and bird life.

The WMC Lodge

The WMC lodge is tucked away in a grove of evergreens at the top of Big Cottonwood Canyon. It is used for a variety of WMC social functions but can also be rented out for personal use on a full- or half-day basis. Renovation to the lodge included the installation of flushing toilets and a shower. Running water! The two dormitory-style rooms on the second floor provide sleeping accommodations for about 20 people. Go to www.wasatchmountainclub.org/lodge/Lodge_pictures.htm to view pictures of the infamous lodge. The kitchen contains a stove and refrigerator, but—you guessed it—it is not stocked with food, utensils or other culinary items. All users of the lodge are expected to clean up the lodge after use. Contact Dave & Susan Rabiger at (801) 964-8190 for reservations.

The Lodge needs constant tender loving care, and WMC members have come to the rescue since 1929. Come donate your carpentry skills or just help clean. Call Bob Myers at (801) 485-9209 or send an e-mail to caretakerwmc@yahoo.com to volunteer. Ask for a list of very specific items that need your attention and the hand tools and equipment needed to get the job done. You need not be a member to volunteer. (Warning: Associating with WMC members and participating in WMC activities can become addictive. Improved health, positive attitudes, and long-lasting friendships are also possible side effects.) We look forward to seeing you at the Lodge!

Please give back and keep your eyes open for upcoming WMC Service Days. The most up-to-date activities are posted on the website (see inside front cover).

Club members can earn up to a $50 voucher by participating in lodge service projects!

Please give back and come help the lodge on the following WMC Service Days. Seeing how there is still a lot of snow in the mountains, at least one of these dates will be filled with shoveling snow off the lodge roof and its surrounding area. Other minor interior and exterior repairs may also occur. If you are physically unable to help out, feel free to bring drinks or treats up to the laborers! Thanks so much in advance for your help!

Single sturdy lodge seeking multiple hard-working hands for great company. Enjoys long days filled with sunshine, sweat, and an occasional deep cleaning.
If interested, contact either Lodge co-director.

Not knowing but one person, my husband and I decided to participate in the highway clean-up. We pulled into the meeting place and met others who were there. We were carrying on conversations, waiting for the activity organizer. We didn't have his contact information with us, so after 20 minutes, we all decided to split and call it a night...after taking a picture to give the organizer a hard time by proving that we really did show up to help out and that he didn't.

My husband and I drove a different route than normal to get home, and lo and behold, what did we see on the side of the road? Orange vests...and five people with bright garbage bags! After swerving off the road and talking with Kyle Williams, we learned that there was a miscommunication concerning the meeting place.

Thus, the two pictures here, representing the "wannabe's" and the "picker-uppers." The others didn't travel the same way we did, so they didn't see that others had shown up in a different meeting place. Participating in highway clean-ups is always fun; it's like treasure hunting. The people I remember (first names only) were Fred, Robert, Vivien, Brett, Justin, Kyle, Pam, Jeff, Eric, Bob, Leslie, and of course myself.

A couple things we found were golf balls (see who can find the most!) and a $5 bill. That $5 was donated for the first drink at the Cotton Bottom where we had drinks and garlic cheeseburgers after our quick clean-up. If you've never eaten there, I highly recommend it. We had a great turnout. Remember, the more people who show up to help, the quicker it goes. AND, if you've never participated in a WMC highway clean-up, you're missing out.

Canoeing Fun & Safety

Marilyn Smith

Gene Dennis recreated last year's star turn, this time on KUTV's "Roughin' It with Reese Stein." (For you computer people, visit <http://www.kutv.com/mediacenter/local.aspx?videoid=38995@kutv.dayport.com&navCatId=92>.)

Gene led 11 WMC members to Bountiful Pond to practice paddling canoes (or anything else that might need paddling). It was a beautiful, crisp spring morning as we took turns trying to keep our canoes going in a straight line, as bow and stern person.

Paula Humphrey, Rod Collins and Mounia Collins, Mary Aa, Margie Benson, Linda and Don Frady, Pam Moritz, Margie Gendler, Marilyn Smith and, of course, Gene Dennis canoed among the ducks.

At the end of the day, the importance of staying in sight of the group was reinforced. We were all on shore, or so we thought, when a bedraggled, sopping wet pair of boaters, brought their canoe to the ramp. Capsizing, even on a small pond like the one in Bountiful, can be dangerous. Those on land didn't see the event nor hear the calls for help. So here's the safety pitch: Make sure you know how many boats and people are in your party and keep track of them. Make sure you don't take a different channel without letting people know. Last, make sure you know how to self-rescue because your friends may not be paying attention.

Wilderness Update

The idea of expanding the Wilderness areas on the Wasatch Front continues to gain support, and specific boundary proposals have been made by Save Our Canyons and by Salt Lake City Water Department. There are many issues that remain unresolved, and the WMC intends to be involved.

At the May meeting, the WMC board reiterated the club's long-standing support for Wilderness and adopted the following resolution:

"The Wasatch Mountain Club remains dedicated to the preservation of our natural landscapes and believes that wilderness designation is the highest and best form of legislative protection. In general, we support the Save Our Canyons wilderness expansion proposal for the Wasatch. The WMC will work with Save Our Canyons in recognizing conflicts and seeking equitable solutions."

The congressional delegation has not moved on drafting a Wasatch Front bill, but a Washington County wilderness and land management bill has been introduced by Senator Bennett. This bill is a substantial improvement over the Washington County bill of two years ago, thanks in part to extensive local negotiations through the Vision Dixie process. The Utah Wilderness Coalition (UWC) has expressed serious concerns about the current Washington County bill because of specific provisions including: sale of public land and the diversion of a portion of the proceeds to the county government, inadequate restrictions on ATV use on lands not designated as wilderness, a transportation corridor through desert tortoise habitat. The UWC has offered to work with Senator Bennett to improve the bill, but it is unclear what will happen in the remaining months of this congress. The WMC is part of the UWC and is on record as supporting the coalition position.

FAINT TRAILS IN THE WASATCH

23. Days Fork

Figure 1. The Days Fork trail extends from the Big Cottonwood highway to the Eclipse mine near the head of the fork, a distance of 3.4 miles.

Days Fork poses the same unanswerable question as does Broads Fork: Who gave the fork its name? At least Days Fork has more possibilities. In the case of Broads Fork, also on occasion called Broughts, Borck and Brock, there were precious few residents in early Utah Territory whose family name matched those possibilities. However, Day was a common name in early Salt Lake City. There was a Private Abraham Day in Company E of the Mormon Battalion, Leah Day who arrived in 1848 and at least a baker's dozen of Days were part of the 1850 emigration. One of them was David Day, who became a Main Street merchant and would provide funding and sustenance for William S. Brighton's prospecting ventures at the head of Big Cottonwood Canyon in 1870. But by that time Days Fork already had its name, for the first prospectors in that fork used the name in their claim notices. Had a name not existed they surely would have used something like Mill D South Fork or the Second South Fork of Mill D, for at that time Mill D was located only a short distance down Big Cottonwood Canyon. The miners did, after all, first call the South Fork of Big Cottonwood the South Fork of Mill A, and Mineral Fork the Second South Fork of Mill B. (The name Mill D South Fork was later applied to the South Fork of Big Cottonwood.) It is very likely one or more of the Day clan contracted to provide logs for Mill D and cut a trail into Days Fork for that purpose. And left the name behind for posterity. But we will never know for certain.

While no documented evidence has come to light to indicate that Days Fork was used as a source of timber for Mill D, there are some indications that this was so. The steep section of road leading up out of the Spruces campground probably was first a logging slide before being widened into a road. Then there are a number of places along the road and on the east slopes of the fork where U-shaped tracks remain, suggesting the dragging of many logs over the years. There is also the fact that Mill D was one of the most prolific producers of lumber in Big Cottonwood Canyon. It would have required timber from any reasonably close source, and Days Fork was as close to the mill as was Mill D North Fork, one of the documented sources of timber for the mill.

A sign at the bottom of the Days Fork trail tells us it is "Days Fork Trail, No.8023." There are some places along its 3.4 mile length from the Big Cottonwood Canyon highway to the head of the fork where one might wonder if it is a trail at all, for Nature is trying hard to reclaim it. Actually, the trail was a road whose history reaches back into the 1870s and continued to be used as a road until the canyon was closed to vehicular traffic about twenty years ago. In the years following 1870 there was considerable mining activity at the head of the fork. None of it contributed much to the mineral output of the Wasatch, but it did cause the road to be built. The trail we see today does not follow the route of the original road the entire distance up the fork. In the lower half the canyon is quite narrow and there was little choice but to keep the road close to the west bank of the stream. But less than two miles from the Big Cottonwood highway the fork widens and exhibits a broad open slope that is swept clear by periodic avalanches. Here the road turns toward the west and climbs steeply for about a third of a mile before continuing up the canyon well above the streambed. The original road, however, stayed close to the stream as it went up the canyon, crossing to the east side and climbing steeply where the streambed is in a narrow gorge. It joined today's trail about a third of a mile below the Eclipse mine, where the road ended. The route of this old road, shown in figure 2, can be followed today, but only with difficulty. It goes through wooded slopes that are crisscrossed by animal trails, some of them being as prominent as the old road. At other places it is hidden by erosion or dense vegetation. And at its upper end it climbed steep slopes that proved to be its undoing.

The present road in the upper part of the canyon is a result of developments at the Eclipse mine. This is the mine at the end of the road, the one with two boilers slowly sinking into the collapsed shaft. The Eclipse mine has an interesting and involved history which will be covered in a later episode of Faint Trails. Suffice it to say that in 1880 when a hoist was erected and the two boilers were installed to power it, the old road up the canyon was found unsuitable for hauling big heavy loads like the boilers. So a new road was built, that being the one we see today. After that time the steepest part of the new road, where Days Fork widens and the road turns west, south and east to gain elevation, was known as the Hirschman Dugway, named after Moses Hirschman, the superintendent of the Eclipse mine, who supervised the construction of the new road as well as the facilities at the mine. After that time all but the upper end of the old road received little use and eventually faded until it was only a suggestion of its former self, the trace that can be seen today.

WASATCH MOUNTAIN CLUB ACTIVITIES

Only activities approved by the appropriate WMC director can be listed in The Rambler. Direct submissions to the Editor are NOT accepted. To submit your activity to the club, login to the WMC website and click on "Volunteer to Organize An Activity". The appropriate director will approve and/or edit this event for inclusion in both the web calendar and Rambler submissions. The deadline is 6:00 p.m. on the 10th of the month.

Find out about unofficial activities on our email lists. Activities formed with these lists are for members only. Lists are to be used only for the scheduling of outdoor activities. Any use of this service for any other purpose, such as advertising, SPAM, jokes, etc, will result in the loss of privilege. To subscribe: Once logging into the website, click on "Email Lists" on the left-hand side. Then follow the online instructions. (Boaters: E-mail the Boat Director—inside front cover—for more information.)

Group size limits in wilderness: Some National Forest ranger districts limit the size of groups hiking in wilderness areas. Come join us on Zion's best hike! 3 hours of steep hiking, 3,000 feet vertical, round trip 6-7 hours. The view at the top is breathtaking, and the hike up is like no other hike you've ever done. You will need to be belayed at one point so bring your harness. I will bring the rope and hardware. You won't need climbing shoes. It requires very simple climbing (5.5) at one point. Call me if you have questions. This is without a doubt the most spectacular hike I have ever done. Period.

Friday we will do two day runs on the Payette and after dinner trek over to Crouch to join in on their raucous 4th of July festivities, a party that must be experienced to be believed. Saturday we will move on to the beautiful and invigorating Cabarton section, capping the day with an optional run down the more advanced South Fork. Then we will drive home on Sunday. (Some of the group will be continuing their Idaho whitewater adventure, and drive on over to Hells Canyon on Sunday, for a Monday launch, and three days on the Snake.) This is one of the most fun trips of the year, and a perfect intro to white water, with car camping, an insane country hoedown party, and a mellow but active river. These are great ducky venues, get your ducks in a row in advance, to try an adventurous step beyond the paddle rafts. Whatever your craft of choice, sign up early, as this trip fills up quickly. The planning meeting for this trip will be held one week earlier, on tuesday June 24, @ 700pm at the boat shed, which is at 4340 south Commerce Dr. (300 west) on the north side of Zims, just up from the MsDonalds.

Hells Canyon July 7-8-9 This trip is designed to sync with the fourth of July Payette trip, which can serve as a great warm up for Hells Canyon trip, and it gets you into the general neighborhood to drive on over on Sunday the 6th. Of course you don't have to do the Payette to join in on the Snake, you could always drive straight up to Hells Canyon and join the group there, but it is a logical sequence, combining two short trips and offers a few more days of great Idaho whitewater while you are up there. The Hells launch will be monday morning, and we will spend three days and two nights on the river, taking off river on Wednesday afternoon, at Pittsburg Landing. We will then drive home on Thursday, although if you needed, or wanted to push it, you could always drive home Wednesday night. Clear cold water, warm sandy beaches, some fun rapids- sign up now, a $50 deposit will secure your place on the trip. We will be driving down after work, on Friday Aug 1, doing the two hikes Saturday and Sunday, and then returning home Sunday night. The trip is half full already, it will be waiting list only before the Rambler ever prints this notice.

EVENING HIKE MAY 6, 2008 - ORGANIZED BY HOLLY SMITH

CLOCKWISE: MIKE TEMPLE & HOLLY SMITH; NICK; DOGS; MT. OLYMPUS TRAILHEAD

ATTENTION NEW MEMBERS:

IF YOU'RE A NEW MEMBER--DEPENDING ON YOUR ACTIVITY LEVEL AND BACKGROUND--YOU MIGHT HAVE A FEW QUESTIONS:

1. HOW DO I GET INVOLVED IN ACTIVITIES?
2. WHAT IS THE AVERAGE AGE OF WMC MEMBERS?
3. HOW AGGRESSIVE ARE THE VARIOUS ACTIVITY GROUPS?
4. WHAT KINDS OF ACTIVITIES CAN BE ORGANIZED?
5. HOW MANY PEOPLE PARTICIPATE IN THE ACTIVITIES?

TO GET THE ANSWERS...ASK AWAY! ASK SOMEONE IN THE CLUB! SEND AN E-MAIL TO WASATCHMOUNTAINCLUB@GMAIL.COM OR CALL SOMEONE FROM THE GOVERNING BOARD (INSIDE FRONT COVER). THE AVERAGE AGE IS...HONESTLY, WE DON'T KNOW. WHY DON'T WE KNOW? 1. WE HAVEN'T YET STARTED TRACKING THAT INFORMATION. 2. IT DOESN'T MATTER. THERE ARE OLDER FOLKS WHO CAN OUT-HIKE/-BIKE/-PADDLE/-DO ANY YOUNGER PERSON. THERE ARE ALSO YOUNGER PEOPLE WHO LIKE TO DO LIGHT ACTIVITIES. SOMETIMES TONS OF PEOPLE SHOW UP FOR ACTIVITIES; SOMETIMES ONLY A COUPLE. THIS IS THE NICE THING. THE WMC ACTIVITIES ALLOW FOR FLEXIBILITY; IF YOU CAN SHOW UP, DO--IF YOU CAN'T, DON'T. AS FOR HOW VIGOROUS AND AGGRESSIVE THE VARIOUS ACTIVITIES AND GROUPS ARE (HIKERS, BIKERS, ETC), CONTACT THE DIRECTOR OR COORDINATOR). PLEASE DON'T FEEL LIKE YOU CAN'T ORGANIZE AN ACTIVITY IF YOU DON'T KNOW YOUR WAY AROUND. THERE ARE SO MANY PEOPLE WHO CAN HELP YOU, AND YOU CAN EVEN DECIDE ON A DESTINATION AT THE TIME OF MEETING! YOU MIGHT HAVE ONE OR TWO AWKWARD ACTIVITIES, BUT JUST GET TOGETHER WITH PEOPLE WHO SHARE THE SAME INTERESTS AS YOU, AND YOU'LL BE ON YOUR WAY TO TONS OF FUN AND EXCITEMENT--THINGS YOU NEVER THOUGHT WERE POSSIBLE!
